

Babe, your evanescence has been occult in my goodbye...

Let's Go! Smile, Smile, Smile

Rain gonna be under your body

Wind gonna steal your bliss

As your embarrass, your lies, your promisses

You cry to other man

I don't believe

I don't believe

You know?

You know I see what you're thinking right, right, right now

I know

I know you feel looking our photos fight, fight, fight low

And till get up, get up, let it up up

Imagine you feel down.

I bet my life.

After all, what's you deserve.

After all, what I fought

After all, what you do

I bet bet bet my life you cry.

I just feel alive, just feel alive

If you were again the same before.

I wouldn't have to bring soul to my heart.

But it's real and need feel me alive

So goodbye, bye You!

Kill kill kill to this soul

Gave everything for

You're empty and nothing I want from

You're without heart and there's not love

See you?

They see you, you aren't masquerade, you crown crown crown night

How are you?

How life you'll pay some day cause from from from light

Is not spite, is not heartbreak.

You understand it all, like you've broken it all

You don't cheat more more, at your friends.

People have seen your dark

I just feel alive, just feel alive

If you were again the same before.

I wouldn't have to bring soul to my heart.

But it's real and need feel me alive

So goodbye, bye You!

Kill kill kill to this soul

Gave everything for

You're empty and nothing I want from

You're without heart and there's not love

I want I want you're break break

I want I want you'll pay pay

Say to bye, bye bye

Laught to smile, mile, mile

Bye alive!
